

SPB-100 Survey Probe with Data Button

TECHNICAL SPECIFICATION

| | |
|-----------------------|--|
| Dimensions | Adjustable in height from 38 to 47 inches (0.9 to 1.2m) |
| Weight | 1.2lbs/0.5kgs (without reference electrode) |
| Material | Aluminum tubing |
| Grip | Heavy-duty non slip vinyl for strength and durability. Contoured, ribbed survey with flange |
| Cord | Multi-conductor cord with each conductor being stranded tinned copper, with poly-propylene insulation with an outer PVC jacket |
| Cord connections | M8 jack for connecting to Allegro QX's remote trigger port. Right angle stackable banana plug |
| Cord length | 1ft long (0.3m) coiled, expandable to 5ft (1.5m) |
| Half-cell connections | Standard threaded connection suitable for most standard portable reference electrodes |
| Data entry | Wired with the rain resistant data entry button located at the top of the survey probe hand grip |
| Set-up | Fully wired to connect with Allegro QX meter |

FEATURES

- Fully wired ready to use
- Direct data entry button
- Compatible with most data collectors
- Accepts most half-cell/electrode body and tip
- Ergonomic design

